MARKUS Partners expands its circle of Partners by Daniel Kral

October 2015 – The M&A advisory boutique MARKUS Partners strengthens its circle of Partners by Daniel Kral. Daniel has more than 10 years of experience in M&A and corporate finance advisory. Since 2003, he accompanied numerous transactions, primarily cross-border, for international corporations, medium-sized and owner-managed companies as well as for financial investors.

During his professional career he worked for several investment banks and corporate finance advisory firms, namely Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein, Rothschild and Silvia Quandt. Daniel joined the Frankfurt-based MARKUS Partners team in spring 2013. His experience and expertise will help MARKUS Partners to develop new projects and broaden the business activities in the small- und midcap M&A. Besides intensively advising our clients on current projects and acquiring new mandates he will be responsible for the expansion and development of the advisory team.

“We are very pleased about the reinforcement of Daniel Kral. He strengthens our advisory skills and will actively support the development of MARKUS Partners. The ‘winged lion’ keeps on flying”, Rolf Köchling and Bernhard Rittel, founding Partners of MARKUS Partners, state.

“This is very good news for our national and international clients and business partners. MARKUS Partners is ready and well-positioned for successful future transactions in the medium-sized sector. Challenge us!” the three Partners add.
